Role of the Match Delegate

Both clubs home and away, must nominate a responsible adult to act as Match Delegate on the day of the game. This must NOT be the team manager or coach, but another adult who is at the match. Failing to do so shall be liable to a fine of at least £10.

The responsibility of the Match Delegate will be to:

- Upon arrival at the venue, the Match Delegate from the home team will ask their opponents, who their Match Delegate is and make introductions to each other.
- Together, they will then report to the match referee at least 15 minutes before the start of the game and introduce themselves to him or her.
- The primary responsibility of the home team Match Delegate to look after the referee before, during and after the game until he or she leaves the ground, although it would be appropriate if the home and away team delegates did the job together.

This would include, showing the referee where the changing rooms and toilets are, directing them to the correct pitch, possibly offering a drink at half time and after the game and ensuring that their fees are paid.

- During the game, each delegate will be responsible for the behaviour of all club members and spectators. If the referee needs to they will, during a stoppage in play, approach the match delegate to assist them in dealing with any problems that may occur. The Match Delegate is not exempt from being reported for misconduct.
- Checking opponents registration cards, confirm result with the match official, complete and a sign result card as appropriate.
- It would also be good practice for the Match Delegate to ensure that the referee is able to leave the ground safely.
- The FA Respect programme must be considered by the Match Delegate at all times. A form is available on the County FA website for any issues that need to be reported.
- Hertfordshire FA is totally committed to equality and our Equality Policy must be emphasised and observed at all times.
